

2019-20 EVENTSUnlocking Corporate Venture Capital with 500 Startups*October 30 | 10:00-11:00 AM PT/ 1:00-2:00 PM ETOnline Webinar*

From May to July 2019, 500 Startups surveyed over 100 corporate venture capital investors across key industries and geographies to explore trends and understand the industry's pain points. Join this webinar to hear the report's findings presented by 500 Startups' Vijay Rajendran, Director of Corporate Innovation, and Alba Zurriaga Carda, Corporate Innovation Manager.

Atlanta VC Leadership DinnerNovember 5 | 6:00-9:00 PMAtlanta, GA*

NVCA hosts regional investor leadership dinners across the country. These dinners serve as an opportunity for NVCA to connect with local investors and share NVCA's current priorities and initiatives. Attendance is limited to 20 investors. Contact Hannah Munizza (hmunizza@nvca.org) to learn more.

Emerging Technology Meets National SecurityNovember 7 | Full day eventWashington, D.C.*

Join top government officials, VCs, and innovators at our annual forum to address the intersection of technology and national security. Contact Jeff Farrah at jfarrah@nvca.org to learn more.

Life Sciences M&A: Private Target Deal TrendsNovember 12 | 10:00-11:00 AM PT/ 1:00-2:00 PM ETOnline Webinar*

Join us for a webinar that will highlight SRS Acquiom's recently released 2019 Life Sciences M&A Study, which gives a detailed look at deal terms and earnout achievement rates by year, sector, and stage of development.

From New to Big: Unlocking Corporate GrowthNovember 13 | 5:30-7:30 PMNew York, NY*

NVCA and Bionic will host an evening of dialogue around engaging the mindsets and methodologies of venture capital and entrepreneurship to grow and transform large enterprises. Leveraging themes from Bionic Co-founder & CEO David Kidder's recent book, New to Big, our speakers will share insights and lessons from their experiences achieving breakout growth within complex and established organizations.

VC StratComm Summit 2019

November 18 | Full day event

San Francisco, CA

NVCA's VC StratComm Workshop provides insight on industry best-practices, thought leadership, and networking opportunities for communications, marketing, and investor relations professionals at VC firms.

LP Office Hours - Los Angeles

November 21 | 2:00-6:30 PM

Los Angeles, California

Join us for LP Office Hours, an opportunity for candid conversations around how LPs and GPs can build stronger relationships.

CVC Mentor Studio: Ask the Experts Panel

November 22 | 2:00-4:00 PM

San Francisco, CA

CVC Mentor Studio is an interactive, peer-led workshop series that connects CVC professionals for learning and mentorship on key financial and strategic topics critical to success in corporate venture. Contact Stephanie Volk (svolk@nvca.org) to participate. Each workshop is limited to 30 participants.

Annual December Luncheon

December 4 | 12:00 PM

San Francisco, CA

Join NVCA and the Western Association of Venture Capitalists (WAVC) for a networking reception, lunch, and keynote address. Contact Allyson Chappell (achappell@nvca.org) to learn more.

2020 EVENTS

Regional Fund Networking Dinner (tent.)

January 22 | 6:00-9:00 PM

Dallas, TX

NVCA invites all regional fund VCs to participate in an evening of dialogue and networking with peer venture leaders. Dinner to include discussion of political/economic trends impacting the VC industry and how family offices can better engage with regional VC funds across the country. Contact Stephanie Volk (svolk@nvca.org) to participate.

Boston VC Leadership Dinner (tent.)

February 26 | 6:00-9:00 PM

Atlanta, GA

NVCA hosts regional investor leadership dinners across the country. These dinners serve as an opportunity for NVCA to connect with local investors and share NVCA's current priorities and initiatives. Attendance is limited to 20 investors. Contact Hannah Munizza (hmunizza@nvca.org) to learn more.

Seattle VC Leadership Dinner \(tent.\)

March 9 | 6:00-9:00 PM

Seattle, WA

NVCA hosts regional investor leadership dinners across the country. These dinners serve as an opportunity for NVCA to connect with local investors and share NVCA's current priorities and initiatives. Attendance is limited to 20 investors. Contact Hannah Munizza (hmunizza@nvca.org) to learn more.

Stanford/NVCA Venture Capital Symposium

March 10-11, 2020

Palo Alto, California

The Stanford/NVCA Venture Capital Symposium is NVCA's hallmark education program, focusing on key governance and management issues. Attendees will learn how to respond effectively to the myriad complex challenges that commonly arise at VC firms and portfolio companies.

NVCA Leadership Gala

March 12, 2020 | 6:00-10:00 pm

San Francisco, California

The NVCA Leadership Gala celebrates the venture industry and honors those who have made significant contributions to foster innovation, advance technology, and drive new company formation.

Additional Events to Be Added!

View our 2019 Webinar Recordings

Opportunity Zone Funds

Recorded on February 7, 2019

The Federal Opportunity Zones Program provides a significant tax incentive for patient investment in certain geographic tracts. Created by the recent tax reform law, many in the industry are exploring how this program may apply to venture capital and startup investment. Hear from Navin Sethi, a tax partner at Ernst & Young LLP, and Justin Field, VP of Federal Policy at NVCA, on how funds can best utilize the tax incentives in the Opportunity Zone program.

1Q PitchBook-NVCA Venture Monitor Webinar

Recorded on April 30, 2019

PitchBook, Silicon Valley Bank, Perkins Coie, and Solium address the state of venture capital through the first quarter of 2019, including how valuations, IPOs, and deals are trending into the second quarter.

Trends and Hot Topics in M&A/ Portfolio Company Sales

Recorded on May 21, 2019

NVCA and SRS Acquiom highlight trends and hot topics in M&A/portfolio company sales, including how post-closing claims, buy-side RWI policies, and founder retention plans impact M&A negotiations.

Real Estate Trends and Practical Guidance for VCs and their Portfolios

Recorded July 19, 2019

T3 Advisors discuss how through real estate and workplace design, high-growth innovation companies and VCs can unlock growth through 2019 and beyond. President David Bergeron covers market trends and practical guidance to help VCs and their portfolio companies leverage smart real estate decisions to hire faster and retain the best people longer, all at a lower cost basis in today's hottest real estate markets.

The Rise of Specialist Transactions: GP-led deals, Fund Restructurings, and other Trends Confirmation

Recorded July 31, 2019

Secondary transactions continue to dominate the market, and specialist transactions are becoming more and more common. Hear from Proskauer partners Galen Lewis, Jeremy Naylor, and Mike Suppappola, as they discuss the ins and outs of GP-led deals, fund restructurings, other specialist secondary transactions, and how the LP community is viewing these structures.

CFIUS Rules and their Implications for Venture Capital

Recorded on October 4, 2019

NVCA and Wilson Sonsini reviewed the new CFIUS proposed rules which greatly expand the role of CFIUS in the startup ecosystem, including their impact on investors and startups.