

NVCA Awards Program Overview

Lifetime Achievement in Venture Capital

The Lifetime Achievement in Venture Capital Award recognizes venture professionals who have dedicated their professional lives to creating and building successful and highly competitive venture firms as well as portfolio companies that have made a significant contribution to the growth and success of the U.S. economy. Recipients of the Lifetime Achievement Award have been highly impactful to the growth and success of the venture capital industry and are recognized as a leader in the VC community.

Previous recipients: Howard Cox, John Doerr, Pete Bancroft, Bill Draper, Chuck Newhall, Mike Moritz, Mark Heesen, Arthur Rock, Sam Colella, Felda Hardyman, James Blair, Brook Byers, Jean Deleage, Anthony Evnin, Grant Heidrich, Jim Swartz, Bill Hambrecht, Sandy Robertson, Thomas Weisel, Edward Glassmeyer, Peter Crisp, Henry McCance, Paul Wythes, Lionel Pincus, Pitch Johnson, Richard Kramlich, Stanley Golder, Burton McMurtry, Reid Dennis, Peter Brooke, Thomas Perkins, Stanley Golder and David Morgenthaler.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be with an NVCA member firm currently or with an NVCA firm during the period for which recognition is being bestowed.
- Highly successful VC during the course of their career
- Must demonstrate contributions to advancing the venture industry.

American Spirit

The American Spirit Award recognizes NVCA members who have shown philanthropic leadership by applying business skills, knowledge, expertise, and resources to make an outstanding contribution to society.

Previous recipients: Steve & Jean Case, All Raise, RoseAnn Rosenthal, Ray Leach, Jeff Fagnan, Robin Richards Donohoe, William Sahlman, Peter Bancroft, Chuck Newhall, Joe Aragona, Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation, John Doerr, Alan Patricof, William Bowes, Peter Wendell, Floyd Kvamme, William Draper III, Martin Koldyke and Gib Myers.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be with an NVCA member firm currently or with an NVCA member firm during the period for which recognition is being bestowed.
- Must demonstrate proof of philanthropic endeavors and commitment to service.

Outstanding Service

The Outstanding Service Award recognizes the exceptional service of an NVCA member who has committed an extraordinary amount of time, resources, and dedication to Association efforts that in turn benefits the entire venture industry. Their dedication has raised the visibility of the industry to key legislators and regulators, and helped to educate them regarding the pivotal role of venture capital to this economy.

Previous recipients: Terry McGuire, Scott Sandell, Ira Ehrenpreis, Ross Jaffe, Diana Frazier, Josh Green, Kate Mitchell, Steve Fredrick, Ted Schlein, Warburg Pincus, Jack Lasersohn, Sarah Reed, John Martinson, Robert Pavey, Rodney Goldstein, E. Roe Stamps, M. Kathleen Behrens, Steven Lazarus, Harry T. Rein, Patricia Cloherty, John Doerr and Christopher Brody.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be a former member of the NVCA Board of Directors and/or with an NVCA member firm.
- Recognized by the NVCA Board of Directors and staff for outstanding contributions to advancing the organization and its agenda.

Rising Star

The Rising Star Award recognizes the next generation of venture capital professionals who are rising through the ranks and establishing themselves as future standard bearers of the industry. Recipients of the award have demonstrated strong command of venture capital investing over a relatively short amount of time in the industry and are widely recognized by their peers and others as high performers and emerging leaders of the venture capital industry.

Previous Recipients: Racquel Bracken, Dan Kidle, Susan Liu, Mia Hegazy, Robin Li, and Kristina Shen.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be in an early-to mid-stage of career with an NVCA member firm.
- May not have reached the rank of General Partner, Managing Director or Managing General Partner.
- Must demonstrate exceptional and ongoing contributions to their firm and portfolio companies.
- If founder or co-founder of a firm, firm must be in operation for less than five years.

Excellence in Healthcare Innovation

For over three decades, venture capital has been at the forefront of some of the greatest advancements in medicine, pushing the boundaries of medical innovation and spurring the creation of the biotechnology and medical device industries. The Excellence in Healthcare Innovation Award recognizes those who have demonstrated a clear commitment to the advancement of healthcare innovation through their investment in and support of groundbreaking life science and healthcare companies that are working on medical innovations and discovering groundbreaking treatments and cures aimed at diagnosing, treating, and curing the most deadly and costly diseases.

Previous Recipients: Beth Seidenberg, Bryan Roberts, Bob Nelsen, Annie Lamont

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be a partner or equivalent with an NVCA member firm.
- Demonstrate a track record of successful investments into life science companies.
- Have led at least one investment into a life science company in the last two years.

Venture Firm of the Year

The Venture Firm of the Year Award recognizes venture capital firms for their significant contributions to advance the entrepreneurial ecosystem and generate returns for their investors. Firms receiving the award are recognized for strong fund performance and high exit multiples for recent exits as well as activities to promote entrepreneurship and create a more diverse and inclusive ecosystem.

Previous Recipients: Accel, ARCH Venture Partners, True Ventures, Emergence Capital

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be an NVCA member firm.
- Must have strong fund performance and high exit multiples.
- Must demonstrate leadership in venture industry and commitment to advancing entrepreneurship and supporting a diverse, equitable and inclusive ecosystem.

DE&I Impact

The DE&I Impact Award recognizes individuals, organizations, or firms who have made a significant impact towards advancing a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive (DE&I) venture ecosystem. Award recipients have demonstrated not only a strong commitment to DE&I, but also have created and executed programs or initiatives that have meaningfully increased opportunities for historically underrepresented groups to participate and thrive in our industry.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Individual must work at an NVCA member firm, firm must be an NVCA member, or organization must be affiliated/partnered with NVCA or Venture Forward in some capacity.
- Individual, organization, or firm must have demonstrated leadership and commitment to advancing a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive venture ecosystem.
- Individual, organization, or firm should be considered a leader by their peers on improving DE&I within the venture ecosystem.

Startup Innovator

The Startup Innovator Award recognizes a VC- or growth equity-backed portfolio company for its significant contributions to society and the world. Companies receiving this award have made a positive and measurable impact on addressing an area of need, an ongoing crisis, or a significant challenge that exists in our world. The company's dedication to affecting positive change has made it a leader within the entrepreneurial ecosystem around the problem it seeks to address.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must have an NVCA member firm as one of the company's VC or growth equity investors.
- The portfolio company's work/efforts must have created a positive and measurable impact on a problem that exists in our world or society.
- The portfolio company is considered a leader in addressing this problem by others in the entrepreneurial ecosystem.

Startup Champion

The Startup Champion Award recognizes elected officials for their significant contributions to advancing policy that supports the entrepreneurial ecosystem and creates a more positive environment for new company formation in America.

Eligibility/Criteria:

- Must be an elected official at the federal level.
- The efforts of the recipient as an elected official must have made a positive impact on the entrepreneurial ecosystem.