

NVCA Emerging Manager One Pager

As the preeminent advocate for the venture capital industry, the National Venture Capital Association (NVCA), offers unparalleled resources, networking opportunities, and advocacy efforts tailored to empower your success in today's dynamic world.

NVCA proudly has 450 member firms, present in nearly all 50 states, that are investing in start ups from coast to coast. Emerging managers are an important voice at NVCA. You represent the future the industry. Your compelling personal and investment stories can have a meaningful impact on policy discussions and industry education efforts.

Here's why becoming an NVCA member is a game-changer for you:

Exclusive Networking Opportunities: Gain access to a vibrant network of venture capitalists, policymakers, and thought leaders. Forge invaluable connections, exchange insights, and collaborate with industry peers via investment sector working groups and exclusive events and webinars.

- Connect with industry peers through our peer groups
  - These working groups, that cover multiple industry sectors and operational focuses, met over 30 times in 2023
- Discounts on our signature events that bring the VC community together
- Priority access to regional happy hours & dinners in cities across the country

Cutting-Edge Insights & Research: Stay ahead of the curve with our comprehensive research reports, market analyses, and industry trends.

- In-depth breakdowns of quarterly valuation surveys and the annual NVCA Yearbook

Advocacy & Policy Development: Be at the forefront of shaping policy decisions that impact the venture capital ecosystem. NVCA actively advocates for policies that promote innovation, entrepreneurship, and investment, ensuring a favorable regulatory environment for venture capital firms and startups alike.

- Invitations to engage with Members of Congress & other government officials
- Drive economic opportunities for your vertically-focused portfolio companies

Professional Development & Education: Through NVCA's supporting organization, Venture Forward, take advantage of available educational resources and volunteer to mentor the next generation of VCs.

- Discounts for VC University
- Best practice sharing with industry experts

Visibility & Thought Leadership: Elevate your profile and establish yourself as a thought leader in the venture capital community. Showcase your expertise through speaking opportunities, panel discussions, and media engagements, amplifying your impact and influence within the industry.

- Market your firm through custom member and portfolio company spotlight features

Discounts: NVCA's Preferred Provider Program helps members and your portfolio companies save time and money through special offers from exceptional partners like Pitchbook.